It's not the same with out him here
Twenty years of him dead and gone
This vodka does the memory clear Though it's too hard to imagine what these tears are for

A walking a poster boy for all that's good
He gets swallowed by the cracks before he understood
She likes to think he loved her but it hurt so bad
Cause now she knows she is wrong.

It always seemed to strike him strange
And why he's late into the morning spending so much cash
The sweet smell of his angel's hair
That seemed to cling to his lips like a wax moustache

A walking monument to DNA making love unto the podium
At the PTA he's the principal of principals this love gone bad
Cause know she knows she's wrong

It hardly seems worth it baby
Too late in asking why

He juggled his honesty with two balls and an alibi

Now she knows that
Now she knows that
Now she knows that she's wrong

A walking a poster boy for all that's good
He gets swallowed by the cracks before he understood
She likes to think he loved her but it hurts so bad
Cause now she knows she is wrong.

A walking monument to DNA making love UNDER the
podium
At the PTA he's the principal of principals this love gone
bad
Cause know she knows she's wrong
