"Down To Earth"

Friends I have to tell you
They sent me on a mission down to earth
To watch and to observe life
And gather information 'bout your birth

But what I mostly see is misery and it makes me sad

So capable of love yet too scared to open up
And just wanna be accepted but can't show that you care
Creating problems daily, no wonder some go crazy
So special and so gifted but most don't know it's there

Friends I have to ask you
Surrounded by the beauty of this place
Why do you make it so hard
For all the things you want to come your way?

Well, I don't think you see your destiny and it makes me sad

So capable of love yet too scared to open up
And just wanna be accepted but can't show that you
care
Creating problems daily, no wonder some go crazy
So special and so gifted but most don't know it's there

Do it, just let it all out
Express emotion, say how you're feeling
It's liberating, nothing can hurt you
You can be happy but you must believe it

me sad

So capable of love yet too scared to open up
And just wanna be accepted but can't show that you
care
Creating problems daily, no wonder some go crazy
So special and so gifted but most don't know it's there

So capable of love yet too scared to open up

And just wanna be accepted
Creating problems daily, no wonder some go crazy
So special and so gifted but most don't know it's there

Won't you let me take you down to earth?
