Like a crystal gleaming bright
Like a prism band of light
She can turn the day into night

{Chorus}
She's got the power
She's got the power, power
She's got the power, power, power
She's got the power

See the way the candles gleam
Feel the sun throw off its beam
She can turn life into a dream
[Repeat chorus]

See the way the candles gleam
Feel the sun throw off its beam
She can turn life into a dream
[Repeat chorus]

She's got the power to create confusion
Her mastery is no illusion

She's got the power, power
She's got the power, power, power
She's got the power
She's got the power, power
She's got the power, power, power
She's got the power
