Living real close to the edge, babe
Almost right on the brink
Judge the day is only moments away
Baby, you know what i think

We're getting too close, too close
We're living in the danger zone
Too close for our own good

We're keeping an impossible pace, babe
Always under the gun
Day and night
There aint no end in sight
This aint no life on the run

We're getting too close, too close
We're living in the danger zone
Too close for our own good
Too close for our own good

We're keeping an impossible pace, babe
Always under the gun
Day and night
There aint no end in sight
This aint no life on the run

We're getting too close, too close
We're living in the danger zone
Too close for our own good
Too close for our own good

We're getting too close, too close
We're living in the danger zone
Too close for our own good
Too close for our own good
