Merci !

You're a dirty, dirty man and you, you've got a dirty mind.
You're a dirty, oh, you're a dirty man
And you're been hiding your little dirt all over this hip place.
But you forgot one thing baby, when you were doing me wrong
That I'm a good housekeeper, I'm gonna take my broom and sweep
All of the dirt, yes you are, out in the street.

You're a dirty, oh, you're a dirty, dirty, dirty man
And you're been hiding your little dirt all over this hip place.
I know you have, you're a dirty, oh, you're a dirty man
And you're been hiding your little dirt all over this hip place.
Oh, here's my chance baby, when you were doing me wrong
That I'm a good housekeeper, I'm gonna take my broom and sweep
All of the dirt, yes sir, out in the street.

Oh, I'm cleaning my whole house, fast as I can.
It's time to make everything, boy, speak and span.

You're a dirty man, oh, you're a dirty man
And you're been hiding your little dirt all over this hip place.
You're a dirty, you're a dirty man and I'm done with your dirty ways.
