Ohh Ohh

You stood there on that sidewalk, in front of God and everyone.

You told your goodbyes and I could've sworn I saw you smiling, while I just came undone.

All your friends who watch the show.

You wanted your freedom and now you don't.

[CHORUS]

Well I'm gonna break break your heart on the radio.

I didn't want to have to do this, waste a perfectly good song.

I'd rather be singing about a love I can believe in and not one that's gone wrong.

It's all for you.

Yeah...It's HEARTFELT you grow fine, pay back is HELL.

[CHORUS]

Well I'm gonna break break your heart on the radio.

And your telling me you don't want to us to be over.

You better pull your cot over the shoulder's.

I'm gonna break break your heart.

[CHORUS]

Well I'm gonna break break your heart on the radio.

On the radio...
