Look at the pretty girl
Rockin the summer trends
Look at the boy with the working change
Stealing another kiss
Look at the way they're laughing
All happy and in love
So wrapped up in each other cant see the rest of us

Chorus

Don't you just hate those people?
Don't they make you wanna scream?
Listen to 'em baby-talkin'
Oh, ain't that sweet?
But if you really care like to yah
the way they carry on
Don't you just hate those people?
When you're alone

When your heart is broken you feel like the only one
There's a million love holding hands
Where do they all come from Every counting tables
Every movie, every part
They want the whole wide world to know how in love they are

Chorus

Someday ill fall back and ill be one of them ill use the love you used and show them.

Chorus

Don't you just hate those people?
Don't they make you wanna scream?
Listen to baby-talkin'
Oh, ain't that sweet?
But if you really care like to yah
the way they carry on
Don't you just hate those people?
i mean really really hate those people

Don't you just hate those people?
When you're alone

Ohh When you're alone
