Some people are down and now,
Some people are lonely now,
Some people just need a vacation,

Some people can't fight a smile,
For some people it's been a while since,
They had an all night conversation

Since you walked into my life,
Everything's felt so right

The sun's been shining,
And I've been singing
This song in my head and it goes
Lalalalalalala
Nothing but blue sky
When I stare into your eyes
I get tongue tied everytime
You smile
Some people don't know
What love can do
Well, they should see me with you

I remember how we used to be
I remember how I used to dream
For someone to come along
And sweep me off of my feet

Some people say wishes don't come true,
Well I say some wishes do
The sun's been shining,
And I've been singing
This song in my head and it goes
Lalalalalalala
Nothing but blue sky
When I stare into your eyes
I get tongue tied everytime
You smile
Some people don't know
What love can do
Well, they should see me with you

And when they look at us,
They can tell, we're in love,
Oh, it's so obvious

The sun's been shining,
And I've been singing
This song in my head and it goes
Lalalalalalala
Nothing but blue sky
When I stare into your eyes
I get tongue tied everytime
You smile
Some people don't know
What love can do
Oh-Oh
Some people don't know
What love can do
Oh
Me with you
