It's been a while, it's been a while
Since you've said hi
It's been a while, it's been a while
Since our last goodbye
It's been a while, it's been a while
And I still haven't cried
I'm surprised

I haven't called, I haven't called
You see, I've been strong
You haven't called, you haven't called
I guess nothing's wrong
God called, He called
Says it's going to be okay
It's for His glory

So live your life and do what you got to
It's only at night when I really miss you
But the morning comes
Bringing a new day and everything seems to start over again

Have you been good?
Have you been great?
Most likely
I've been good, I've been great
Just keeping busy
And we should since as of late
Time just passes by
We don't even have to try

So live your life and do what you got to
It's only at night when I really miss you
But the morning comes
Bringing a new day and everything seems to start over
again

One day you'll see
One day you'll know me as the girl that you let go
It was, so close, almost

So live your life and do what you got to

It's only at night when I really, really miss you
But the morning comes
The morning comes
