Oh, we can touch the sky

I was never looking 'round
Tryna find someone to take the plunge
Little did I know, I was in need
Find the one that make me feel so heavenly

Hey, there's no way that I'm ever gon' back again
La, la, la, ain't going back again
Heaven's in your arms, got me until the end
Got me until the end

Let me be your angel
Through the golden door I will come running
When you need someone, I'll be your angel
When you wanna fly, I will come running

And we could touch sky, we could touch the sky
Oh, we can touch the sky, come on

Some people will never see
How you came into my life and set me free
But little do they know that I've been found
Flying so high, so high above the ground, take

There's no way that I'm ever gon' back again
La, la, la, ain't going back again
Heaven's in your arms, got me until the end
Got me until the end

So let me be your angel
Yeah, through the golden door I will come running
When you need someone, I'll be your angel
When you wanna fly, I will come running

And we could touch sky, we could touch the sky
Oh, we can touch the sky

Let me be the lady in your life
Let me be the one that helps you fly
Let me be that angel love
That you've been looking for

Let me take your feet up off the ground
Let me promise you'll never come down
Let me be the lady
That you cherish and adore

And let me be your angel
Through the golden door I will come running
When you need someone, I'll be your angel
When you wanna fly I will come running
And we could touch sky, we could touch the sky
