"Love Is Your Color"

(with Leona Lewis)

Just when you think that it's over
You hit with a brand new start
And you'll find right there within you
That you never lost that spark

Love is your color
It makes you shine
I know, I know
So show your colors
It comes from inside
Everything else is black and white

But love is your color
Be that color
Love is your color
Show your color
Love is your color

Some say it's just an emotion
That comes and goes with time

But love is your color
It makes you shine
Sometimes it's hard to cope
Long as you always know
To show your colors
It comes from inside
Everything else is black and white

Love is your color
Time is a force that we cant hold back
It moves on like a thief in the night

Love is a friend that will hold your hand
Always right there by your side
Its like

Love is your color
It makes you shine

I know, I know
So show your colors
Baby it comes from inside
Everything else is black and white

Love is your color
(be that color)
Love is your color
(show your color)
Love is your color

Love is your color
(be that color)
Love is your color
(show your color)
Love is your color

It makes you shine
I know, I know
It comes from inside
Everything else is black and white

Love is your color

Love is your color
Be that color
Love is your color
Show your color
Love is your color
