See those shoulders bend all weighted by the thought
One more day to carry on, now, carry on
Trouble she cannot shake
Dreams she would like to take her away, away

CHORUS:

I'll be waiting for the Son to rise
So i can start again by and by
I'll be looking o'er my head to the sky
See the clouds open wide reveal my faith
Mercy me, who do you say I am?
Do I not love you, did I not nail a hand
Trouble I cannot take,
Dreams I would like to take you away, away

BRIDGE:

Let the words of my mouth adore You
Next time out, o i'm gonna let it fly
Although my dreams may be tattered
My will, my heart battered
I know You will hear my cry
