Alone, alone is where i'll be
Waiting, waiting so patiently
Escape this little war raging
One Still Small Voice
Come rescue me

Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to Usher Me Down
Many o, many o, Lord, my God
The wonders that i have found
When You usher me down

Sacrifice and offering
You do not desire of me
I say here i am, You come
As if i ever had to call

Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to Usher Me Down
Many o, many o, Lord, my God
The wonders that i have found
When You usher me down

Who could replace You?
None i know of
The Throne is Yours alone
Left to stand unshaken
Can't be taken back
Can't be taken back

Why wait, why wait
Why wait for You to Usher Me Down
Many o, many o, Lord, my God
The wonders that i have found
When You usher me down
