Turn Your eyes from on this way
I have proved to live a dastardly day
I hid my face from the saints and the angels
Who sing of Your glory

What You had in mind
Through my weakness shines
Shines show me grace

A little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve
Unearth this holiness I can't earn
It's a little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve

For all the sin that lives in me
It took a nail to set me free
Still what I do, I don't want to do
And so goes the story

What You had in mind
What we seek we'll find
Shine, show me grace

A little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve
Unearth this holiness I can't earn
It's a little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve

With all this motivation
I still find a hesitation
Deep in my soul
Despite all my demanding
I still find You understanding
Show me grace, show me grace I know is

Is a little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve
Unearth this holiness I can't earn
It's a little more than I can give
A little more than I deserve, yeah yeah
