Never thought I'd come to the day when I'd drop my head and ask to stay for a while Just ran away when it got too tough Built my life on lies and little trust
Now I'm down on my knees Puttin' faith in a prayer After I walked a million miles to find what I had left behind circle back find my Lord calling out to me He said
"Jenni come just as fast as you can let go of that devil's hand only I only I can lead you true"
spent too much my time runnin' back and forth never thought I'd live to be a praise report But Jesus put the breath of life in me
After I walked a million miles to find what I had left behind circle back find my Lord
calling out to me He said
"Jenni come just as fast as you can
let go of that devil's hand only I only I
can lead you true"
It's sure good to see you again my long lost friend
What of this absence has made your heart so weak Well I walked a million miles to find what I had left behind circle back find my Lord
calling out to me
I hear you call I hear you say Jenni don't Jenni don't run away I need a witness to say Well I walked a million miles to find what I had left behind circle back find my Lord
calling out to me
