He is my light and my salvation
Whom have I to fear?
In His secret place I'll hide and pray
That I might hear a simple word

Oh, how I would have despaired
If You had not come found me there
I can lean against Your throne
And find my peace, find my peace

And when my enemies draw near
I pray that they will find
That I'm protected and secure
All tempests He will bind with a mighty word

Oh, how I would have despaired
If You had not come found me there
I can lean against Your throne
And find my peace, find my peace

He is my light and my salvation
Whom have I to fear?
