Say won't You say
Say that You love me with love, ever, love, love everlasting?
All my devotion put into motion by You

Every morning I have a chance to rise and give my all but every afternoon I find I have only wasted time In light of Your awe Isn't love amazing, I forgot how to speak knowing You are near and I am finally free

My eyes fear to close this reckless letting go is hard to bear on the edge of all I need, still I cling to what I see and what have I there?
Bred my own disaster, who have I to blame?
When all I need is waiting to be fanned to flame

I opened up my eyes to see You standing there Oh I can barely breathe, and I can hardly bear
All the love that I feel for You inside
I hope You feel it now, some, somehow
