Right here
Something in the dark shot glasses, you know
Something that you can lean to Something that you can ride to Something that you can step to
You know

Sometimes real love can be
Not seen 'cause you're thinkin'
What's right in front of you
Can't be the one for you

Then one day you realize that
There are feelings that you can't hold back
And you're so caught up
Now that's all you think of Crazy how

All that talk of us not able to last
Just because of mistakes we made in the past
But they failed to understand

I got you
And nobody can come to change a thing
'Cause you gotta know
You got me
And it feels so good to have your back now
I'm so proud

I got you
And if somebody tries to take you from me
They will see I've got you
You got me

I got you

Things are often said to
Doubt what I feel for you
But words that people say
Won't take my love away
Although it hurts sometimes, it's alright

But why they say some things that ain't right
I never know but please understand that baby, it ain't nothing

All that talk of us not able to last
Just because of mistakes we made in the past
But they failed to understand

I got you
And nobody can come to change a thing
'Cause you gotta know
You got me
And it feels so good to have your back now
I'm so proud

I got you
And if somebody tries to take you from me
They will see I've got you (I got you, baby)
You got me (you got me, baby)
I got you (I got you, baby)
You got me (you got me, baby)

Talk is all that people can do
Nevermind all the love, all that you gotta do is simply love, trust, and just stay focused on us
Together we'll get through whatever if we Don't let speculations mix situations up
We'll be alright

I got you
And nobody can come to change a thing
'Cause you gotta know
You got me
And it feels so good to have your back now
I'm so proud

I got you
And if somebody tries to take you from me
They will see I've got you (I got you, baby)
You got me (you got me, babe)

I got you
And nobody can come to change a thing (feels so good inside)
'Cause you gotta know
You got me
And it feels so good to have your back now
I'm so proud

I got you

And if somebody tries to take you from me
They will see I've got you (I got you)
You got me (yes, you got me, baby)
I got you (nothing come between us)
You got me (you got me)
I got you (through whatever)
You got me (you're all that I need)
I got you (oh, baby)
You got me (forever, baby)
I got you (I got you)
You got me (you got me)
I got you
You got me
