It's my time to imitate the scene
Feel his shadow falling down
Falling down on me
Masquerades will show me
Show me what is real
It takes my hand and I can feel
Show me what to feel show me what is real
'Cause I'm living in a room now
Welcome to my masquerade
Sunlight shows his shadow on the wall
I feel his touch begin to fall
Falling down on me
I lay my head back slowly
Whispers come to me
Gently now I can see
Shadows come to me
Love comes to me
'Cause I'm living in a room now
Welcome to my masquerade
Rescue me catch me from the fall
Let me dream of him until I hear him call
Let him kiss me softly
His shadows in the rain
Let him kiss me in the rain
Touch me in the rain
Move me in the rain
'Cause I'm living in a room now
Welcome to my masquerade
'Cause I'm living in a room now
Welcome to my masquerade
