with questions unanswered what are we doing here in all this commotion with guarded emotions we're afraid to feel in this world gone crazy i'm keeping you close to me so love won't leave me here cuz i'm prone to overanalyze my heart gets stuck in overdrive while i'm left standing by

and i do love you
i like to go with the flow still i don't know
which way i'm going
but it's all there in the skies
how i do love you
i do love you

i'm overthinking, every motion got my feet off the ground and i'll be headin'
in your direction
so when it all comes down to a world gone hazy you'll be leading me safely love won't leave me here

how i do love you
i do, do love you, i do love you don't stop you know that i'm needing you now don't stop til i got my feet off the ground can't stop this feeling, can't slow it down
