Play me a minor chord
Something not like before
Something feels different this time
Write you another song?
Pretend like there's nothing wrong?
Well maybe there's something not right with me

I don't know how
You got stuck in my head somehow
Can't seem to write a song unless it's about

Chorus
You and a broken heart
About me and a promise gone
About us, when I'm feeling low
About now, far as we could go
About you, when you made me cry
About us, when we said goodbye
Don't want to hear anymore about us Us! US!

You've taken away the spark
All of the pink love hearts
All of the happy refrains
'The Signs' they have been and gone
Yesterday's news far from...
How I remember you
Something changed

I don't know what
But I know what this song is not
And baby how I wish it wasn't about

Chorus

Bridge
I don't need your sympathy
Get enough of it for free
I just want to be alone right now

Cos I'm loving who I am
And though it wasn't in my plans
I'm ready to sing a different song not about...

Chorus to end...
