Sometimes love escapes me
Been feeling lonely lately
And you're heart is calling
And yet I've been stalling
You want me to feel it
The Way you can feel it
No one needs to know it
But you want me to show it

Chorus

I've been making excuses everyday
Been playing my music, hiding away
I've been making up stories so not to be found
Been making excuses when you are around

I think you're moving quickly
You think I'm moving slowly
You might want first place
But it's not a race
Need time to believe it
Need time to really feel it
Sometimes your the one,
But then the feelings gone

I can't hear you no more
What am I waiting for
Believe in love at first sight?
Well maybe love's not so black and white
Sometimes love annoys me
Sometimes love controls me
Sometimes love can hold me
But always love escapes me
