Even if the sun don't shine
I know someday you will be mine
I often wondered when that day will come
To me you are the only one
And you know where I'm coming from
We've got something in common you and I
So take my love it's yours
It's yours forever more

Chorus

I'll be here when you realise
There when you finally find
Out what you want to say
I'll be here if you take a chance
There when you take a glance my way
When you know what your heart is for
Know what you need it for
True we can make mistakes
But I'll be here when you want to stay
There when you want to look
My Way, My Way

Even if the moon don't rise
I'll see the night sky in your eyes
Someone somewhere sees it oh so clear
I can give you so much more
Than what you have been looking for
I know you think that love just disappears

So take my love it's yours
It's yours forever more

Chorus
