I know I never say that much
But what I say, it comes straight from my heart
Never been in love as such
It feels so strange to me

I check my facebook all the time
Just to see if you've been on my profile
Inconspicuous I wait
By your garden gate

Chorus
I can't lie
I'm in love with you
And my heart feels blue
I am falling, I'm falling
I can't lie
Cos I know the Signs
How you're on my mind
All the time, I am falling

It sort of happened over night
I felt a burning like I was on fire
I thought you'd set my heart alight
But it was just a dream

One day myspace will be your space too
And on youtube I will sing for you
I've got a pocket full of love
Put in your hand and feel

Bridge
We should go fly a kite
You fell as if from a height
Illuminous like Space
You've got such a pretty face
Sandwiches in the park
Hide and seek in the dark
Kisses in the rain
I hope you feel the same!
