You and I once had a taste
Of a love so out of place
It was clear and cannot be denied
And we never needed lies

So here we stand, face to face
Knowing that losing lingers
I know myself thereâ€™ll be nobody else
Who will ever take this place in my heart

Oh you just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running to you in the night
You just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running right back into your life
And if you ever need my love, call my name

Tell me did we simply collide
With a moment passing in time
Or can you tell me you will never forget
Now your bones are so far from gone

There are no chains to hold you down
I told you a long time ago
This timeâ€™s mine for moving on
Still thereâ€™s one thing I need you to know
Oh you just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running for you in the night
You just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running right back into your life
And if you ever need my love, call my name

And if you find you need my love
Then itâ€™s time we start over again

Oh just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running for you in the night
You just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running right back into your life
And if you find you need my love, call my name
Just call my name
And Iâ€™ll come running right back into your life
You just call my name

And Iâ€™ll come running for you in the night
And if you ever, if you ever need my love
And Iâ€™ll come running for you in the night
And Iâ€™ll come running right back into your life
