Heaven knows where do I begin
To show you the love that lies within your skin
Open up your heart
Let the light come shining in, cos
Cos when everything is gone
Did you ever think that you're alone

Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Can't you, can't you, can't you
Cos you'll never find yourself alone

Not alone when somewhere in your heart
There's a love that's shining in
So just smile when love is like a child
Running into something wild
Cos when everything is gone
And you think you're standing on your own

Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Look deeper within your skin, oh
Can't you see you're loving everything
Can't you, can't you, can't you

Cos you'll never find yourself alone

Heaven knows where do I begin to show
The love that lies within your soul
So open up and darling let it in

Cos when everything is gone
The candlelight it still goes on

Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Can't you, can't you, can't you
Cos you'll never find yourself alone

Deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything, oh baby
Deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Can't you, can't you, can't you
Cos you'll never find yourself alone
Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
Look deeper within your skin
Can't you see you're loving everything
