This is the night anything's possible
A rhythm of life about to unfold
There's no need to hide you're not invisible
Though shadows will fall you're under control

'Cause love is the language of the heart
We hear the mystery
Love is the language of the heart
Oh speak low when you speak to me

Love is the language of the heart
We hear the mystery
Love is the language of the heart
Oh speak low when you speak to me

Don't be afraid you're right where you're meant to be
It's our secret place and no one's in sight
You don't have to talk
Come to me silently
What I want to hear
You say with your eyes

'Cause love is the language of the heart
We hear the mystery
Love is the language of the heart
Oh speak low when you speak to me

'Cause it's automatic
Oh don't try to analyze
Love's got the texture
If you've got the touch
It loses its magic
Whenever it's verbalized (heh)
Love comes up wanting
When you want too much

There's no need to hide
You're not invisible
Though shadows will fall
You're under control

'Cause love is the language of the heart
We hear the mystery
Love is the language of the heart
Oh speak low when you speak to me

Love is the language of the heart
We hear the mystery
Love is the language of the heart
