It was over, I was letting go
Another heart without a home
It was enough to make
My world stopped turning

I fell apart too easily
I was thinking that love was not for me
How was I to know the kind of changes I'd go through
I swore I'd never fall in love again
That's when I met you

Never say never, no I'll never say never again
Never say never, no I'll never say never again

Looking back now, like the setting sun
The hardest times have come and gone
You were enough to make
This heart stop searching

You called my name and I let you in
With you I'm strong, I can breathe again
How was I to know that then the best was yet to come
I swore I'd never fall in love again

Where did you come from

Never say never, no I'll never say never again
Never say never, no I'll never say never again

As sure as I'm standing here
As sure as the river's gotta run
You're here to remind me
That baby this world was meant for love

Never say never, no I'll never say never again
Never say never, no I'll never say never again

How was I to know that then the best was yet to come
I swore I'd never fall in love again
Where did you come from

Never say never, no I'll never say never again

Never say never, no Iâ€™ll never say never again
Never say never, no Iâ€™ll never say never again
Now I believe in love
Never say never
