I had it all figured out
We'd say goodbye for good
We had so many problems
Much more than lovers should
But now that you are gone
I'm hurting and it's killing me to lie awake at night
And think of you... here in the dark

Wherever you are
I'm calling to you
Wherever you are
I'm reaching for you
No matter how far you'll be part of me
Wherever you are that's where I will be
Your love will always live in my heart
Wherever you are

I never thought you'd really go
I didn't want to know
So sure we'd last forever
My pride was in control
Now every little thing you said to me
Is coming back to haunt me
Coming back to taunt me now
It makes it so hard

Wherever you are
I'm calling to you
Wherever you are
I'm reaching for you
No matter how far you'll be part of me
Wherever you are that's where I will be
Your love will always live in my heart
Wherever you are

You know I tried to be strong
Held my head high and tried to carry on
Now I know strong don't mean goodbye
It means I'll try again...
Wherever you are

Wherever you are

I'm reaching for you
No matter how far you'll be part of me
Wherever you are that's where I will be
Your love will always live in my heart
Wherever you are
