"Windows"

We don't have to speak another word
Let's stay in the moment,
Here for good,
Come baby lay your body down,
Next to mine,
Hold me forever,
Wish you would,
Take me by the hand and lead me down the wrong way,
Let our dreams take flight,
All of your questions,
Will be answered tonight,

So if you want to know,
What's in my heart,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul,
If you want to know,
Just who I am,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul

Well way beyond the spoken word,
The truth cannot be told,
by anybody else out there,
Only the two of us in silence,
If we close the door to the world out there,
If we dare turn out the light,
All of our questions,
Will be answered tonight,

So if you want to know,
What's in my heart,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul,
If you want to know,

Just who I am,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul

Look into my eyes baby,
Tell me what you see,
Do you see the future laid out for you and me,
Look into my eyes baby,
Tell me what I feel,
Do you see the love I'm waiting to reveal,

If you want to know,
What's in my heart,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul,
If you want to know,
Just who I am,
Look through the windows,
The windows to my soul
