(As recorded by Glen Campbell)
(From the album 'A Satisfied Mind')

Well, I stopped at a roadhouse in Texas
At a little place called 'Hamburger Den'
I heard a song on the jukebox
A tune called 'Truck Driving Man'

The waitress then brought me some coffee
I thanked her but called her again
I said that old song sure does hit me
Cause I'm a truck driving man

So pour me another cup of coffee
For it is the best in the land
And put a nickel in the jukebox
And play the truck driving man

I climbed back aboard my old semi
And then like a flash I was gone
I put my hand upon the shifter
Cause I'm on my way to San Antone

When I get my call up to glory
They'll take me away from this land
I'll pull this old truck up to Heaven
Cause I'm a truck driving man

So pour me another cup of coffee
For it is the best in the land
And put a nickel in the jukebox
And play the truck driving man
