You take a couple of chances and back up, great hand busts

Secret champagne tickling your nose
Back then we could make the casinos come to us
Wake up in the kitchen without clothes

So, please save us, Las Vegas
Say it's not the end
We gotta stick our arm for one more say
Smoking another pack of cigarettes
And say, please save us, Las Vegas
This can't be the end
I think we got enough for one more bet
Tomorrow we can start, trying to forget

The heat and the hearty can get me over both of us
Without the things 'bout you no one knows
Whatever those stolen moments took from us
Lift our love, a sour smelling rose

So, please save us, Las Vegas
Say it's not the end
We gotta stick our arms for one more say
Smoking another pack of cigarettes
And say, please save us, Las Vegas
This can't be the end
I think we got enough for one more bet
Tomorrow we can start trying to forget

Save us now
Please save us now
Save us now
Please save us now

Please save us, Las Vegas
Say it's not the end
We oughta give it one more try
Cause I don't wanna say good...

Please save us, Las Vegas
This can't be the end
I think we got enough for one more bet

Tomorrow we can start, trying to forget

Save us now

Please save us now

Save us now

Please save us now
