It was a clear summer day
When I saw the tears in your face
I knew that our time was up on us

Our moment of end was so fast
But the kiss of goodbye always lasts
Not even time could fade it away

Even though you are no longer here
There is still something between us
Even though life isn't fair
I'd never lose my trust

Chorus:
Just another lesson to be learned
Gotta move on and not lose faith
Just another obstacle to take
Live my life before it gets too late
I won't give up
I won't stay down
This is what life's worth living for
(Life's worth living for)
I still believe in love

I'm holding the warmth of your lips
It feels like the time we first kissed
When all of the stars lined up for us

But like the wind you said goodbye
And left me alone here to cry
We shouldn't have gone our separate ways

Even though you are no longer here
There is still something between us
Even though life isn't fair
I'd never lose my trust

Chorus:
Just another lesson to be learned
Gotta move on and not lose faith
Just another obstacle to take
Live my life before it gets too late

I won't give up
I won't stay down
This is what life's worth living for
(Life's worth living for)
I still believe in love

Chorus:
Just another lesson to be learned
Gotta move on and not lose faith
Just another obstacle to take
Live my life before it gets too late
I won't give up
I won't stay down
This is what life's worth living for
(Life's worth living for)
I still believe in love
