I could hold on for a hundred years
When all else is gone I would still be here
In a memory of things that seem
I'll remember all that we've never been
And I cannot wait to see
What life has in store for me

In another lifetime
It would be forever
In another world where you and I can be together
In another set of chances
I'd take the ones I missed and make you mine
If only for a time
My life would matter
In another life

And I'd stay as strong and I'd stay as true
You'll have forever now to think it through
'Cause I do believe what wasn't meant to be Wasn't meant for now but someday you'll see
In a place and time where we're alone
Standing there and free

In another lifetime
It would be forever
In another world where you and I can be together
In another set of chances
I'd take the ones I missed and make you mine
If only for a time
My life would matter
In another life
You would be mine
But until that time is now
I'll be holding on somehow

In another lifetime
In another world where you and I can be together
In another set of chances
I'd take the ones I missed and make you mine
If only for a time
My life would matter

But until that time
I'll be holding on to forever
Until another life
