I'm on my way to the USA, so give me your adress
And I will send you the only white dove from New York City

And call out your ZIP-code in the Grand Canyon
I know you don't really read my letters
The very thought of not knowing the exact location of the room
Were we shared our last kiss
Will eventually kill me

'Cause it wasn't just any kiss
It wasn't like a first kiss, or a second kiss or a a millionth kiss
But it was a perfect kiss
It was a kiss we've had been working on forever

(You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me)

I guess I should be ashamed
I've already caused so much trouble
I had something going on with another girl Then another one after that I just couldn't get you out of my head
So I grew tired of them

You know, I had a plan that involved you
And maybe that's not a very good idea
'Cause I know you have a guy now
And I know that you're happy living your life the way you do
I'm not here to ask you to change your life
Because I just want to let you know how I feel about you
I just want to go on with my life, you know

(You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me)

I'm in Bloomington tonight and I miss you
Feels like all I've accomplished means nothing

Feels like my whole existence and history has been erased
I open up a sealed envelope
And it contains and the eternity of memories that I've never experienced so I can't explain this in one sentence and I just keep going on

You know, I had a plan that involved getting on with my life
But maybe that's not a very good idea
I'm alone now
I would be so afraid if someone put their arms around me

(You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me
You don't know how much you mean to me, to me)
