In just about any given situation
I'm wasting my patience
Even though my heart is open
I'm broken, so broken down
I'm broken down

I defy the laws of science
And physics, well, even logic
Come on, let's erase my existence
Annihilation, exuberating

Feel it running on and on
I've broken down
Feel it running on and on
I've broken down

Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on and on)
Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on and on)

Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on and on)
Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on)

I'd swear my mouth is open
It's open, I'm screaming
But still my world is silent
So silent, so alone

Feel it running on and on
I've broken down
Feel it running on and on
I've broken down

Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on and on)
Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on and on)

Feel it running on and on

(On and on, on and on and on)
Feel it running on and on
(On and on, on and on)

Everyday, everyway
Always losing my mind
Spinning round in rhetorical questions
Perpetually wasting my given time

Feel it running on and on
(No more decaffeinating)
Feel it running on and on
(I'm done procrastinating)

Feel it running on and on
(Consider this my resignation)
Feel it running on and on
