Waiter, waiter, waiter
Tonight I'll be your waiter
(Waiter)
Tonight I'll be your waiter
(Waiter)
Let me serve you all night

I assume you know what to say
Tell me baby girl what's your craze
Tell me baby girl what's your name
Lord, it don't even matter I'll still serve you up a platter

Baby tell me what you like from the side
Tell me something that's caught your eye
I'ma make sure it's right on time
Aw, you'll have no more stressing
If you simply sit and let me be your

Waiter, let me fill your cup till you've had enough
I can be your, waiter, owner of the club
You know you could have whatever

You wanna do, I'll do whatever you want to
Serve whatever you want to
If I can be your waiter, waiter, darling

Know you got some expensive taste
Tell me baby girl what's your fave
Tell me baby girl what you drink
Aw, I'll surprise and treat you

When I get back from the kitchen, baby
Here's the menu go on pick you something
Tell me that you like it well done

Tell me that you want that in one
Aw, give me some direction
You know I serve to perfection as your

Waiter, let me fill your cup till you've had enough
I can be your, waiter, owner of the club
You know you could have whatever

You wanna do, I'll do whatever you want to
Serve whatever you want to
If I can be your waiter, waiter, darling

If you got a sweet tooth
I'ma fill it like
For real it's nothing more than
Just desert and I'm one call away

I'ma bring it from the kitchen to the table
Girl, tonight I'm gonna make sure
To get you spoiled so I can hear you scream

Tonight I'll be your waiter
Tonight I'll be your waiter
Let me serve you all night

Can you hear my baby?
If it look this good, I wonder how it tastes
Baby if I touch your body, can you scream my name?

Would you whisper to me, "It's yours"?
Girl, you smell so gentle and pure
You control my senses, baby all my senses

Ohh, ohh

Would you whisper to me, "It's yours"?
Girl you smell so gentle and pure
You control my senses
If it look this good, I wonder how it tastes

Baby if I touch your body, can you scream my name?
Would you whisper to me, "It's yours"?
Girl you smell so gentle and pure
You control my senses, baby all my senses
