When you tell her that you love her
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it?

And when you tell her that you need her
Do you mean it that you need her?
Do you mean it that you need her?
Do you mean it?

Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening
Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening

Because I want her happy
And I love her smile
Because you make her happy
So could you please never lie?

When you tell her that you love her
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it?

And when you tell her that you need her
Do you mean it that you need her?
Do you mean it that you need her?
Do you mean it?

Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening
Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening

Because I want her happy
And I love her smile
Because you make her happy

So could you please never lie? (x2)

When you tell her that you love her
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it that you love her?
Do you mean it?

Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening
Because her heart's a fragile thing
And I hope you're listening

Because I want her happy
And I love her smile
Because you make her happy
So could you please never lie
