Ran into a man today
And he told me everything,
Everything I needed to hear.
He told me to love
And love
Just like I knew,
The end was near.
Sing if you sing
And love what you do,
And if you don't
Then maybe
Go try something new.
And when you find
What you love
Man, don't give it up.
Just keep it close
It'll be enough.

Don't wast your time,
Don't do it.
Just keep your head up
Through it.

Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
And don't you ever give up
On the things you love.

Talking to my brother today
On the telephone.
And he made it clear;
You better
Take the chance
At everything you love.
When it comes near
Sing if you sing

And love what you do,
And if you don't
Then maybe
Go try something new.
And when you find
What you love
Man, don't give it up.
Just keep it close
It'll be enough.

Don't waste your time
Don't do it,
Just keep your head up
Through it.

Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
Take what you love
And put it in your pocket,
And don't you ever give up
On the things you love.

And when your heart
Is getting heavy,
And your eyes
Are tearing up,
And you think
There's nothing
Left for you to love.
Maybe think about
The story
About the spider
And the raindrops.
Where would the spider be
If he gave up?

Take what you love
And put it in your pocket(x10)
