Don't know why, I have to be alone
Tonight
When I know you're not,
It's not fair
Don't know why, why
I still believe in you
After all
The lies, why I still care

Why
Am I holdin on to you, why am I
Holdin on

Could it be because
You were my first love
Because
You told me things I always Dreamed of
Or maybe how your
Hand fit perfectly in mine
Could
It be the way that we first
Met
How you dropped your phone
And I wont forget
When I picked
It up and looked into your Eyes.

And I knew you would be
Mine

It's been so long, still I
Can't get over you
I never like to Hear the truth of what went Wrong
I'm feeling down, each and
Every single night
In my head I
Try to fight, the truth that your Gone

Chorus.

All my friends
They tell me I can't hold on to the Past
Sure it was good but it's no
More sometimes somethings don't Last
Maybe It was good back then,
But it's not good now

Could it
Be because you were my first
Love
Because you told me things I Always dreamed of
Or maybe how
Your hand fit perfectly in
Mine
Or how we talked on the Phone till we fell asleep
And
You told me all the time that you
Needed me
Why when I needed you
Most you were gone out of my Life?
Could it be that you were
Mine
