With every moment of every day
My heart is aching with words to say
I can't explain it, the way I feel
All that you've given has been so real

I couldn't breathe some
I couldn't breathe something more to live
I didn't want none
I didn't want nothing more than this

All this time, all the time
You have given me love more than I know
All the time, all this time
You have given me love more than I know

My words are wasted when I don't speak
Of all your wonders within our reach
The more you show me your printed hands
To be more grateful to understand

I couldn't breathe some
I couldn't breathe something more to live
I didn't want none
I didn't want none, nothing more than this

All this time, all the time
You have given me love more than I know
All this time, all the time
You have given me love more than I know
This time, all the time

The way that you've planned it, it's more than I can see
I'll never understand it until I live with you in eternity

All the time, all this time
You have given me love more than I know
All the time, all the time
You have given me love more than I know

All this time, all this time
You have given me love more than I know
All the time, all this time

You have given me love more than I know
All this time
