All this time I've wandered around
Searching for the things I'll never know
I've been searching for this answer that Only will be found in your love

And I feel it
My heart is being mended by your touch
And I hear it
Your voice that's shown my purpose in this world

You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me
You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me

I've only come to realize
My strength will be made perfect at your throne
Laying all reflections down
To see the precious beauty that you've shown

And I feel it
My heart is being mended by your touch
And I hear it
Your voice that's shown my purpose in this world

You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me
You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me

Laying all these questions down, you've answered what I need
You've given more than I deserve, you're making me complete
You've given all these open doors as I'm humbled at your feet
To show me what you've done for me

You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me
You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me

You have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me
Oh you have restored me from my feeble and broken soul
You have restored me

All this time I've wandered around
Searching for the things I'll never know
