Been here before.
Though there's something in the air this time,
Now I wanna give away what I've taken back.
Run away with you toward the night.

A thousand names.
Though there's something in me cannot smile,
Don't wanna spend the day retracing steps.
Run away with you toward the light.

I can't stay long, in the morning.
Another one went wrong.
It's ok, now that you're gone.
Only in your eyes a sudden need denied,
I sympathize.

A diamond gaze.
A thousand strands of sunlight in her eyes,
Now I wanna give away what I've taken back.
Step away with you toward the night.

I can't stay long, in the morning.
Another one went wrong.
It's ok, now that you're gone.
Only in your eyes a sudden need denied,
I sympathize.

It's ok, now that you're gone.
Only in your eyes a sudden need denied,
I empathize.
It's ok, now that you're gone.
Hurry up and sleep, to the night you go.
