Threw myself on the floor
Chasing time at the door
Half-past nine, self-control
Place your heart on the go

Nights will mourn
And I'm sleeping on the better debt of day
Like the rising off
They won't need me till tomorrow

Night that claims the sky
Forever dreams of a better day

Half-past nine, rise at four
A pain in my heart after all
Casting iron, self-control
A pain in my heart after all
Don't let go

Nights will mourn
And I'm sleeping on the better debt of day
Like the rising off
They won't need me till tomorrow

Night that claims the sky
Forever dreams of a better day
Please say you'll be around
