Floating up from the bottom
Words try to find me again
She was bare foot and careless
I was relentless as sin

Stop frame the colours bleed
Those moments in time I never even seen

Smiling with determination
Her eyes betray worries to me
Okay, nothing ain't perfect
But perfect ain't nothing anyway

It all just depends on what you see
My eye is the lens and the camera is me
(Chorus:)
Those words don't mean much
Coz I don't believe in me
You're my silent
Sixteen millimeter dream memory

Walking down to the water
Follow the lines on our hands
See ourselves in the bubbles
That wash up our feet on the sand

Stop frame the colours bleed
Those moments in time I never even seen

(Chorus)
