Why you got my lovin' on hold, baby?

Come on, baby, why you wanna do me wrong?
Come on, baby, why you wanna do me wrong?

I can't believe it, the day you were with him
In your arms and no plans to let him go
He was a friend, like tonic you said but I found
He was your man and I was on the side

You finally admitted to me
You said that things weren't going so well
You wanted to be with me
But you need a little time to let him down easy

You said that you would tell him, I can't wait forever
Why you got my lovin' on hold?
You told me that you told him, if it's really over
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold, baby?
Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

Sometimes we'd go out but only at night
Now I know the reason why to keep me out of sight
The thing in your closet, I saw a new vest
I just knew it was for me, never saw that vest again

How could you look right into my eyes
And tell me that you're really tryin'?
You wish to play a game off to see
I won't let you get me down
What goes around comes around

You said that you would tell him, I can't wait forever
Why you got my lovin' on hold?
You told me that you told him if it's really over
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

J to the E R E M Y, I'm Mack Daddy and you know

I'm not from the West Coast, East Coast, originally
I'm straight up from the Chi-town, Midwest town

Step of you to claim which probably mad
So you blame each other that 'coz Jeremy is no joke
So you know you can't deny this irresistible feeling
[Incomprehensible] we don't expect to keep your lovin'
on hold

How could you look right into my eyes
And tell me that you're really tryin'?
You wish to play a game off to see
You can't get Jeremy down
What goes around comes around

You said that you would tell him, I can't wait forever
Why you got my lovin' on hold?
You told me that you told him if it's really over
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

Hold, on hold, on hold, my lovin' on hold
Hold, on hold, on hold, my lovin' on hold

You said that you would tell him, I can't wait forever
Why you got my lovin' on hold?
You told me that you told him if it's really over
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold, baby?
Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold?

Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold, baby?
Why you got my lovin'
Why you got my lovin' on hold?
I'm not not gonna forever
