Somethin in the way your movin is tellin me that your still crazy for me Somethin bout' the way your lookin is tellin me that your not really over me

Am i holdin not letting go
The things that never went away Am i not holdin on ive got the need to divide you from every living breath

Im cold in the morning thinking about you Cold in the evening when Im without you Cold in the morning and I go crazy living life like this Somethin bout' the way you move me is telling me that your still crazy for me Somethin bout' the way im feeling is telling me that im not really leavin

Im holding on not letting go
the things that never went away holdin on ive got the need to provide you with every living breath

Im cold in the mornin thinking about you
Cold in the evenin when im without you Cold in the mornin and I go crazy living life like this cold in the mornin thinking about you
Cold in the evenin when im without you
Cold in the mornin and I go crazy living life like this

You say you dont know, you say you dont know me since i lost my soul ohhh take a look inside, you cant deny ohhh take a look inside theres more then just a ghost to find in me

Im cold in the mornin thinking about you
Cold in the evenin when im without you
Cold in the mornin and I go crazy living life like this
