Trying hard to stay awake
Overtime without a break
I'll catch the night bus home
You won't have to sleep alone
I wear this crisp white shirt for you
I work this dead end job for you

My guitars out in the shed
But I will stumble into bed
Time will break these hands
Two kids one many fan
I bought that diamond ring for you
I'd buy anything for you

From the dark side of the street
I hung around to watch him leave
But I watched him kiss your neck
So soft and violent
But I won't say a word to you

I would lose my pride for you
I'd lose everything for you...
