Where you going with your life
You know you've got a problem, it will be alright
Where you gonna go tonight
You think there's no one there
But I'm right by your side
Always by your side

[Chorus:]

I still know you think 'bout what happened to us
Back then long ago
I will always think
And I will always wonder: what went wrong!

How you feeling, you're alright?
You think it's all my fault no one's on your side
How am I going sleep tonight?
Knowing what I've done,
Not knowing you're not right
I can't sleep tonight

[Chorus]
