Life was less talk for a second, Lets talk for a second.
Life is less talk for a second. Lets keep it all the way real, i dnt deserve to be here no more,& thts just how i feel, Life in this 21st century, so fuckin pretend to me. i dnt understand whats going on,& these crazy signals sent to me, sex cell & recuss aint, gossips like the bible. & this dumbass doctor conrad when he killed my nigguh michael. Everybody gotta a title, but most aint worth to get,& since when did a hoe get famous, frm the nigguh she let run in it, apple selling causing, jobs hard to come by & so many people probably study war,& we dnt knoe why? & in this industry im in, idnt even knoe where to start. Over kill with all this pop shit, & songs with no heart. No soul, no vision, just go with the flow niggus. So i decided to take it back to the days of old nigguh.
Back when cloud was try'na get its place, kenny was stil partners with tom. in LA Ree, was in the deal playing Drums, Love was special. People had Respect, niggus were smarter, when singers used to sing & rap was really much harder, when hatred was never at this level. i wonder how it got like this, cause people used to scream, & cry for niggus tht were hot like this, But now we got Dumb bye bitches like Sandra, tht live their life day to day, tryna take you under. Thts the new way, shit right? so homie dnt 12, but tht shit, your doing Obama,bitch your going straight to hell. Now run & Blog tht, where my dogs at? i mean those tht understand where im going & want it all bad. i talk about the past, but i aint stuck in it.
Like Radio, asking candie if her and alma used to fuck in it, tht was then, this is now, nigguh move on. Get like me, get a drink, or sumthing to get your groove on, now where my drink chasers, wanna get a real splitter, niggus tht make me look at myself, & say Jady go harder, where the pretty girls, camp in, dope boys, i never expected this, never thought i'd see a day and say, i wish sumbody like cal, will come & just take me away , sooo far away now. Take mee away.
